

Women on Boards UK The Benefits of Subscription Membership

WHY JOIN WOMEN ON BOARDS?

NEW TO BOARDS?

Women on Boards can help you understand your transferable skills and the types of boards you can realistically target. You will have access to training, resources and support, as well as information on hundreds of board vacancies across sectors. We will help you to make the right connections and provide you with opportunities to build your network.

"The Women on Boards team has helped me in many ways from sourcing vacancies, providing connections to influential headhunters and putting me in touch with other members in a position to talk through the background to a role before an interview."

ALREADY ON A BOARD?

Women on Boards helps existing non-executive directors stay at the top of their game by providing access to up-to-date governance insights, masterclasses and the opportunity to network with other non-executives and Chairs. Our experienced members are also able to 'pay it forward' by supporting others who are at an earlier stage in their board career.

SUBSCRIPTION MEMBERSHIP

Subscribed Members have access to:

1-on-1 Support

Our 1-on-1 Support is unique and is designed to maximise your chances of being successful in your boardroom aspirations. We will review your Board CV and provide you with support and connections once you are selected for interview, so that you are well prepared and confident on the day. If you are already on a board we will support you in stepping up to the next level by sharing insights and best practices, as well as helping you make senior connections.

"With support such as the Board CV review, I understood and felt confident in the skills that I could bring to the board. I have just renewed my membership as I expect the service to be equally useful as a serving board member. Thanks to all at Women on Boards!"

"Women on Boards has been the most valuable resource to me in building a new portfolio career!"
